Fruitmarket Gallery

Martin Creed: Down Over Up

Wednesday 22 September

2 – 3pm

Join a small group on an exclusive guided tour at the Fruitmarket Gallery for people who are hard of hearing and companions. Portable loop available, free event.

The Fruitmarket Gallery present a major exhibition of new and recent work by Creed, one of Britain's most highly-regarded and popular artists. In 2001 Martin Creed won the Turner Prize with Work No. 227: The lights going on and off.

Creed's work captures the public imagination, while also attracting critical acclaim for its generous, accessible approach. He puts ideas out in the world in a variety of materials, not all of them art materials yet not all of them everyday stuff either.

The Fruitmarket Galley is centrally situated behind Edinburgh Waverley Rail Station. The Gallery is close to major bus routes, please contact Artlink if you would like more information. An FM hearing loop is also available at all public talks at the Fruitmarket Gallery.
